such an investigation and it was conducted at Washington the expenses for witnesses from the territories would be heavy. He thought it would be better to have the investigation conducted in the territories and at a time when the committee should be more at leisure than they would be during the remainder of the session. He added that the whole subject of trading with the Indians needed revision. Mr. Vest said the evil complained of was an old one, and as the resolution applied only to the present administration of the Indian bureau, it did not begin to reach the evil. Mr. Vest did not make his remarks in any partisan sense. The evil was inherent in our statutes. They put the Indians at the mercy of white men. Indian traderships were at present based the Indians. After further debate, Mr. Harris urged that

Citizens of Montgomery county, Maryland, were excited yesterday afternoon by a shocking crime of a character such as is generally followed in that section of the country by summary punishment. The victim was Miss Eliza Gloyd, a girl about fifteen years of age, who lives near Gaithersburg. While on her way home from school yesterday, about 4 o'clock, as she was passing along the road, about three hundred yards from the Gaithersburg railroad station, a colored man sprang out from behind a tree, siezed her and dragged her into the woods. The girl fought hard, but was choked and overpowered by her assailant, who was a powerful young man. He dragged her some fifty yards into the woods and there accomplished his purpose. In the struggle she tore off a large portion of his coat, which she had in her possession when found, and also bit his hands. A man, it is stated, was passing at the time and heard her cries, but was atraid to go to her assistance, but hurried to the depot and gave the alarm. When assistance reached her the colored man had made his escape. News of the outrage spread very rapidly, and soon men were searching for the fugitive negro. A man supposed to be the guilty one was seen at Rockviile about 6 o'clock last evening, and had five dollars changed at the railroad ticket office. He then took the road toward Brookeville. It is supposed that he had walked down the railroad track. His teet were muddy, and he appeared nervous and ill at ease. Last night searching parties were riding in every direction through the county looking for the fugitive. It is sup posed that the man lives near Spencerville. H applied for work at the place of Mr. David Car-lisle, two miles from Gatthersburg, and was seen soon after near the spot where he assaulted Miss Gloyd. Miss Gloyd describes her assailant as about five feet seven inches tall, very black, with a scar on his chin, and dressed in a brown coat, dark pants, and wearing a white straw hat. He had also a watch and chain. Miss left for Portland yesterday, but before going Gioyd is the daughter of Win. Gloyd, who was years ago. She is intelligent and prepossessing in appearance.

Officer McMahon, of the fifth precinct, put a colored man under arrest at the Center market he shipped in a small Portland schooner this morning on suspicion of being the man wanted by the Montgomery county authorities. The man was found sleeping in a wagon about half-past four o'clock. He said his name was James W. Gaskins. He said he came from Berks' station on the Virginia Midiand road, and had been here two or three days. He made of John F. Miller, late a senator from the state | a number of contradictory statements, which led the police to hold him until they had made further investigation. He was attired in light pantaloons and dark coat and wore a straw hat. He is about live feet six or seven inches in height, but no scar on als chin.

SAID TO BE THE RIGHT MAN. Howard Garrett, at Great Falls, telephoned to the police of this city a little before noon today that a negro, supposed to be the one that outraged Miss Gloyd, had just been arrested there. He has a scar on his chin and a cut or bice on his forefinger, and answers the description given of the man who committed the outrage. He says that his name is Monroe; that he has been working for Mr. Knight, a fish dealer in the Center market, in this city; that he came up the river on the steamer Corcoran last Wed-nesday; crossed the Long bridge this morning and went up to the Great Fans. Mr. Garrett thinks the prisoner is the right man. . . . GASKINS RELEASED.

The man Gaskins arrested this morning at the Centre market was released this afternoon as it was proved that he had been in this city several days. Capt, Knight, the fisherman, has gone down to his landing at Stony Point. Dissatisfaction is so wide and deep that many are heard to say that no change could be for the worse. Some of those who were the warmest advocates of confederation in 1867 are now the most outspoken in their in 1867 are now the most outspoken in their expressions of hostility to it. After the failure of the repeal legislation of 1868-9 to accomplish its main purpose the people settled down, not very cheerfully it must be admitted, to make the best of the situation. 'Give the union a fair trial,' said some. It has had a long and more than fair trial, and the verdict against it is more emphatic than before. We are assured by the fathers of the confederation that the affairs of the Dominion could be carried on for twenty years or more at an annual cost of twenty years or more at an annual cost of $11,000,000 or $12,000,000, but the expenditure exceeds the enormous sum of $35,000,000, while the interest and charges in connection with the public debt absorb nearly as much as we were told would pay the total expense of the government."

REVOLUTION CANNOT BE PREVENTED. CHICAGE, May 28 .- Anarchist August Sples was seen in the county jail last night, and upon being asked what he thought of his case now, said: "I don't think anything about it excepting as a hoax, and I think the ca thilistic papers ough! to be suppressed. If it will do the capitalists any good I am satisfied to let them hang me now. My sentiments, in the past so freely expressed, are less incendiary than those of the capitalistic press since the recent inbort troubles began. You must know that I don't care for my life. They may take my life, and they may take the lives of any of my friends, but revolution no man can hold down, and if revolution breaks out you will not be able to suppress it. See the great Frem h revolution and other revolutions. Revolutions pass over human laws and human beings and their efforts. They don't care for human beings and human power. So we don't care for any thing. Every revolution has its great sacrinces, and you want to take my life you can do it. We did not throw the bomb, I am quite sure that one of the capitalists threw the bomb in order to get rid of us-in order to have a chance to jump

Went Down with a Crash. THE WHOLE INTERIOR OF A BIG GRANE

RATIDS MILL COLLAPSES. GRAND RAPIDS, MICH., May 28 .- At 7 o'clock last evening a toundering crash was heard in the Valley Cit mills. On investigation it proved to be the giving way of the over aden like an empty gg-sheil. There were stored in immense ones in the second, third and fourth stories of the mills between 15,000 and 20,000 bushels of wheat and about 30 of bran, all weighing 500,700 tons. In the western portion of the building was the milling machinery, of the most im foved and cost y styles, a portion of it having then put in but a year ago at an expense of $55,000. All this plunged into the basement and ong the general destruction. The timbers and machinery broke through one west side of the building, making a gap in the wooden walls 15 feet wide and 20 to 30 feet high. A smaller gap was also made in the wall on the east side. These were the only signs visible from the outside of the grand smasn-up ent ways, Last night it was said that Mr. Powderly's plan for the future government of the order is the establishment of a state assembly. There will then be four assemblies. Local assemblies will be subordinate to districts, districts to state, and state to national. The plan is reported to be very popular among delegates.

A large number of local granges and, in some states, the body of farmers have gone into the Knights of Labor as district assemblies. The farmers' orders largely assisted the suights in the late strikes in the southwest, and to show an appreciation of brotherly aid the general assembly appointed a committee to prepare an address to the granges, to be presented at its national convention F. A. R.'s special to the Baltimore Sun says the proceedings of the convention were yesterday guarded more jealous y than ever. The impression is that this is done to keep from the public the dissensions which exist between delegates and the hard time generally the convention has in transacting tusiness with so many radical members, all of whom, it is said, want to speak. The representatives of trades unions are beginning to murmur at being kept waiting in Cieveland so long. They say it is nonsense to talk about the knights of Labor absorbing the unions.
